A Service Celebrating the Life of

Gary

Welcome

Jack Doman

Friends, we have gathered here together to praise God and to witness to our faith as we celebrate the life of Gary. We are invited to laugh, cry, to remember that life is better as we share stories of marriage, Mustangs, and raising 4 girls.

We come together in grief acknowledging our human loss. May God grant us grace, that in pain we may find comfort, in this sorrow we may experience hope, and in this death, we may know resurrection.

Call to Worship

Leader: The eternal God is our dwelling place,
and underneath are the everlasting arms.

People: The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
of whom shall I be afraid?

Opening Prayer

God, we are gathered here today as friends and family of our loved one who departed from this world and has come into your presence. Lord, it is not easy for us to speak through tears, of joy for our beloved, but we know that Gary is now forever with You in heaven. Help us now to support Delia, Joyce, Jenice, Beth and the rest of the Kellogg family in Gary's absence. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Closing Prayer

Lord, we have celebrated the life and faith of Gary with each other. We ask that you make us faithful, as Gary was faithful. Help us to set our focus on your kingdom, on our ultimate destiny. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Benediction

Not only do we believe in God and a future life of peace, happiness and beauty surpassing human conception, but we also feel that in remembering those we love we are able to attain new heights. Let us consecrate ourselves anew to the great unfinished task of creating a better world. Here in the sanctity of love and memory, let us sustain the relatives and friends of Gary by the evidencing of faith and hope, drawing a little closer in friendship and understanding, inspiring these bereaved with greater courage for the days ahead.
